

MARLBORO HINDI SCHOOL

Every Saturday, September 09, 2017 to June 23, 2018 - 2:00 to 4:00 PM

Frank Defino Central School, 175 State Route 79, Marlboro, NJ 07746

Program Background and Details:

- Started with 9 children in 2000, Marlboro Hindi School has grown to over 180 children
- Offer eight levels of classes that cover Speaking, Reading and Writing Hindi
 - Beginners Levels I, II and III - Children 5 to 10 years old with no Hindi Background
 - Intermediate Levels I - II – Children above 7 years old and/or Hindi Background
 - Advanced Levels I and II – Children according to age and Hindi Background
 - Superior Level – Students who have passed all levels at MHS.
- Fall and Spring Indian Cultural Programs – Parents / Children Participation Strongly Encouraged
- Textbooks: ESHA Textbooks for Beginner classes. Primary School Textbooks from India.
- Fifteen regular teachers and several substitute teachers
- Sixteen teaching assistants and several teachers aids

Registration:

- Online Registration. For further details, please visit: www.marlborohindischool.org
- Limited Registration – In the School Cafeteria from 1:00 to 2:00 PM on Saturday September 09, 2017
- Online registrants get first priority

Contacts: Dr. Bishan Agrawal 732-536-2688 (bagrawaldr@gmail.com)
Mr. Brij Nandan Gupta (732-331-5636) (bngupta@gmail.com)
Dr. Ved Chaudhary 732-972-1489 (ved.chaudhary@gmail.com)

SCHOOL IS RUN BY VOLUNTEERS. PLEASE CALL US TO HELP

Sponsored by Educator's Society for the Heritage of India ESHA – A non-Profit Organization

